

The Hillsboro Community Foundation is pleased to announce our new Executive Director, Rick Zurow, and wanted you, as a key partner and supporter, to hear our good news first.

Rick brings more than 30 years' experience in the non-profit world, working for organizations including the World Forestry Center, Oregon Zoo Foundation, Portland Community College Foundation and the Oregon Jewish Community Foundation as well as at the University of Arizona's College of Education and University of California (Berkeley).

Rick lives his personal philosophy to help make the world a better place than how he came into it. His goal is to help facilitate philanthropic intents in various ways as people, businesses and organizations seek to give back to the greater community, responding to needs and opportunities, advancing community goals and impacting people from all walks of life.

As HCF transitions, the Board extends its great appreciation to Janel McKenna who has guided HCF's substantial organizational development and financial growth for more than a decade. Janel and will continue for a period to assist with the transition.

We thank you for your ongoing support and partnership with the Hillsboro Community Foundation and look forward to working together to continue enhancing the quality of life for our community.

Sincerely,
Tom Hughes, Board Chair
Hillsboro Community Foundation

Mary Ordal, President-Elect
